

www.LA3.com.au

| | |
|--------------------|--|
| SPECIES | Viola hederacea |
| COMMON NAME | Native violet |
| ORIGIN | New South Wales, Queensland, Tasmania, Victoria and parts of Malaysia. |
| DESIGN USE | Container plant, ground cover |

HEIGHT

0.10m

SPREAD

0.20m

HABIT

Prostrate herb, the trailing stems root at the nodes to form a dense mat.

FLOWERS

White and violet flowers on stems to 15cm

FLOWERING PERIOD

Spring/Summer

LEAVES

The leaves are bright green and kidney shaped to around 3cm across

CLIMATIC TOLERANCES

It likes shade to moderate sun and plenty of moisture.

HORTICULTURE

Likes a moist but well drained, partly shady spot. It will tolerate full sun but not dry conditions.

REFERENCES

http://www.koalanativeplants.com.au/commerce/search/products/?product_id=Viohed&merchant_id=2056

<http://www.cradocnursery.com.au/plants/Viola-hederacea.shtml>

http://www.gingergarden.com/other/results.php?plant_id=133

www.LA3.com.au