

SPECIES	Atractocarpus sessilis
COMMON NAME	Native Gardenia, False Gardenia
ORIGIN	Australia
DESIGN USE	Flower gardens

HEIGHT

10m

HABIT

A small bushy tree

FORM

Small bushy tree

FLOWERS

White star-shaped, scented and up to 4 cm across

FLOWERING PERIOD

Summer

FRUIT

Brown, globular, hard fruit up to 5cm across.

HORTICULTURE

Propagate from fresh seed. It needs a shady position and abundant water. It is a food plant of the bee hawk moths.

REFERENCES

<http://www.cook.qld.gov.au/news/2006/freetreeselection.pdf>

<http://www.soe-townsville.org/schoolshadetrees/trees.html>