

SPECIES	Allocasuarina littoralis
COMMON NAME	Black Sheoak
ORIGIN	Melbourne
DESIGN USE	As screening in height-restricted areas and as a street tree

HEIGHT

8m

SPREAD

2–4m

HABIT

Fast-growing for a small-statured to medium-sized tree.

FORM

Upright growth with branchlets that are very fine, bright green, and contrast strongly with the black bark.

FLOWERS

The flowers are showy, typically dark red

FLOWERING PERIOD

Spring

BARK / TRUNK

Furrowed

HORTICULTURE

Will grow in any well-drained site, including those where summer irrigation is limited.

REFERENCES

<http://www.metrotrees.com.au/treehandbook/page-listings/allocasuarina-littoralis.html>

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Allocasuarina_littoralis

<http://www.dinsan.com.au>